

Part of a Quarterly Conversation Series
Presented by the Women in Architecture Committee of  AIABALTIMORE

Family Leave, Insurance, and HR Policies that Impact Women & Families

Understand the Law & your Options

Tuesday, January 22, 2015 from 6:30-8:00pm

Program will be held on January 29, 2015 if there is a snow cancellation

Doors open 6pm for refreshments & networking; Program starts promptly at 6:30pm

The Engineers Club, 11 West Mount Vernon Place, Baltimore, Maryland

Mark your calendars! The Women in Architecture Committee is planning its next program that informs and reflects on work place issues that affect women. This panel discussion features professionals in Human Resources and work place law who will share their knowledge and advice.

Panelists:

Jacqui Stern Demitz, HR Director at Microsoft
Heidi Conway, Senior Director of Benefits Services & HR Services at Johns Hopkins University
Paul F. Evelius, Attorney & Partner, Wright, Constable & Skeen, LLP.

Moderator:

Sharon Walsh, AIA, Senior Associate, Gaudreau, Inc.

This program is open to the public. 1.5 AIA CES credit available.

Cost of attendance: $5 Students & AIA Associates / $10 AIA & Allied Members / $20 non-members

Advance registration required by Jan 21 at: www.aiabaltimore.org/committees/women-in-architecture-diversity/

Light refreshments will be available due to the generous sponsorship of k.lechleiter ARCHITECT LLC